HOP GROWERS.

Convention Called At Independence Saturday Nov. 4 At 1 P. M.

Latest Reports of Bonefile Sales Indicate a Stronger Demand for Oregon Hops.

A call for a Hop Growers Convention at Independence, Polk county, has been issued for Saturday Nov. 3rd at the City Hall at 1 p. m. Officers of the Oregon Hop Growers association will be present. All growers are urged to turn out at the meeting.

The Hop Market.

Jacks, Carmichael & Co., received 66 bales of hops from Marlet Huston, of Sidney last night.

A. E. LaRoque, of Butteville, was a passenger home this morning via boat. Mr. LaRoque has been here trying to dispose of his hops and was offered only 7 cents for his 52 bales.

They are free from all mould but a trifle greenish in color, having as most hops this season taken on some of the second growth, which causes most hops to be the least bit greenish, though not injuring their quality in the least.

Reliable Hop News.

Four hundred bales of hops were bought by Jacks, Carmichael & Co., the lowest price paid was 10c.

There are now nearly 4,000 bales of hops in store in the Southern Pacific warehouse and a large number have already been shipped.

Jacks, Carmichael & Co. bought 100 bales of hops yesterday of Chas. McCormick of Woodburn for 10c.

Eleven cents is the amount paid by Jacks, Carmichael & Co., for a lot of hops at Hillsboro which were delivered today.

Jacks, Carmichael & Co., bought 110 bales of hops for Aarold Olsen, of Mt. Angel, at 10 cents. These were a superior quality of hops.

FROM OAKVILLE.

Death of Mrs. Martha E. Pattison, an Oregon Pioneer.

PATTISON.—At her residence near Oakville, Or., Mrs. Martha E. Pattison, aged 73 years, 8 months and 22 days.

Mrs. Pattison was born in West Virginia, on February 3, 1826, where she resided till she was 14 years old. From Virginia she went with her parents to Iowa, in 1840 they located near Burlington where they resided for eight years when they again located in Wapello county where she married Mr. Eli Pattison and moved to Washington county where they resided till 1880 when they moved to Audubon county, from there they came to Oregon in 1882 and located in this county. Mr. Pattison died July 13, 1887 and a little over two years later she was laid by his side. Mrs. Pattison leaves nine children, two daughters and one son in Iowa, and five daughters and one son in Oregon. Mrs. Pattison was a good Christian woman and was respected by all who knew her. A. Y. SMITH.

The farmers are all busy harvesting their spuds and sowing their fall crops, although the prospect for a fair price is not good, the farmers can do nothing but work ahead and try to solve the problem: Why do some men live well and do no work?

The river boats are making regular trips to Peoria and Harrisburg.

The steam boats can now run to Monroe since the Long Tom has been opened for navigation. We will ask congress to open up Muddy to Oakville.

New Adjutant General.

Major C. U. Gantenbein, who was recently appointed adjutant general of Oregon, took up his duties today when B. B. Tuttle, who has held the office for five years, will retire. The transfer of National Guard records and property will be made in Portland.

ALL HALLOWE'EN

Pranks Played at the Expense of Innocent Persons Who Left Property Exposed.

Halloween pranks were indulged in last night by the youthful portion of the population, and all parts of town display the result of more or less original work on the part of the jokers.

The bulletin board at the JOURNAL bore a sign, evidently swiped from some poultry raiser, which reads: "The latest for hats is Rooster Feathers Inquire within." All around town loose signs were transposed and tricks of varying brilliancy were played.

In the residence portion of the city the usual number of gates were carried off and outhouses over turned, which seems to be the limit of invention for most of the prank-players.

Up on Piety hill Mr. McNamar's buggy was hoisted and fastened up in a tree, a position in which no well-conducted buggy is ever supposed to find itself.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

The members of Central Lodge No. 18, Knights of Pythias, last evening entertained the Rathbone Sisters at their hall in the state insurance building.

The evening was enjoyably spent and the ladies, being the guests of the Sir Knights, were royally entertained.

Geo. F. Rogers was master of ceremonies and the following program was rendered after which a cake walk took place, then refreshments:

Original song, C. D. Gabrielson; newspaper, M. E. Pogue; address C. B. Updegraff. A grand cake walk followed, in which the honors were awarded to Dr. J. C. Griffith and Claud Townsend.

D. A. Dinsmore served as leader.

THE PHILOSOPIANS.

The Philodorian society of the Willamette University, gave a pleasant Halloween party last evening at the home of Misses Jessie and Claire Holmes.

The party was given for the benefit of the Athletic Association. The party was a grand success. The lights were lowered at midnight and ghost stories were told. Two skeletons were introduced and the entire party were satisfied of the genuineness of this novel Halloween party.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

At the Presbyterian church the young people had a very pleasant time celebrating Halloween evening, for which the church had been decorated with Jack-o-lanterns and various colored bunting, all lights were enclosed in colored cloths to make the proper ghostly appearance. The hostess of the evening welcomed each guest with an artificial hand, which gave each a gruesome shudder. The evening was a typical Halloween. A pair of masked spirits entered and created considerable excitement. They were seized, however, and their identity disclosed Mrs. H. J. Bigger and Mrs. Herron. The party was pronounced a grand success and will long be remembered.

AT THE BLIND SCHOOL.

A genuine Halloween entertainment was given at the Oregon Blind Institute and was enjoyed by all. The teachers and scholars carried out all sorts of spirit forms and hobgoblins, after which a literary program was rendered.

AT THE M. E. CHURCH.

At the Methodist church the Choir gave a social in the church parlor. Refreshments were served and the hall was lighted with jack-o-lanterns to lend a ghostly appearance. Booths and tables were located in various parts of the church from which refreshments were served. Fortune tellers and all manner of entertainers were present. The receipts of the evening were satisfactory and proved that great interest was taken.
